New York Botanical Garden presents Spooky Garden Pumpkin Nights

Break out your best Halloween costume and explore the twisting trails of the Everett Children’s Adventure Garden by flashlight during this frightfully fun nighttime outing. You can even explore the beauty of kiku after dark—our carefully trained Japanese chrysanthemums that scream fall color. Meet giant skeletons on parade, discover the secret lives of scarecrows, groove to live music, and stop to purchase drinks and light bites as you celebrate the spookiest season at NYBG!

Food: Food available for purchase on garden grounds; not included. Round trip transportation to the gardens will be provided. Drop off & Pickup: White Plains, NY

Fee: Respite $100, Non-Respite $175

The 5 Steps to Making Friends, Being Social, and Finding Love with Neurodiversity

Hosted by Shames JCC on the Hudson in Tarrytown, N.Y. Please join us for a special event curated for young adults who are Neurodiverse and their caregivers. This event will be facilitated by Jeremy Hamburgh from My Best Social Life.

A little about Jeremy: Jeremy “helps young adults who are Nuerodiverse make friends, land dates and experience the joy of having a girlfriend or boyfriend by giving them the strategy and the confidence they need to meet new people while remaining 100% genuine and true to themselves”.

For more information on the relationship workshop, please email Annie Bridson abridson@shamesjcc.org
